Metaphors

What work do metaphors do for us?

- Structure our language and our expectations of experience
- Explain new and abstract areas with analogies to more concrete ones
- Open up new ways of looking at experience

Examples from L&J. Wordle.net

“Try to imagine a culture where arguments are not viewed in terms of war, where no one wins or loses, where there is no sense of attacking or defending, gaining or losing round. Imagine a culture where an argument is viewed as a dance, the participants are seen as performers, and the goal is to perform in a balanced and aesthetically pleasing way.”
